Cricket Club Wettingen

Annual General Assembly

Convened each year, this is the one time in the year where the club asks and expects all its Senior and Junior members (respectively their parents or legal guardians) to attend to “have your say” and get involved in how the club is run.

Extraordinary General Assembly

Can be convened anytime during the year to make major decisions for the club, where the club expects all its members to be part of.

Etiquette

Ground preparation – all players selected to play a home game are to be at the ground one hour before the match starts to assist with preparation (setting up the pitch, marking boundaries, marking the 30-yard circles etc.,)

All players are to assist in clearing the ground of its equipment and any rubbish or litter after all matches and practice sessions.

Clubhouse / Pavilion – all players are to ensure that the equipment is placed in the kit bags in an orderly manner and that the location is left in a clean and tidy state.

Attire

All players representing Cricket Club Wettingen are expected be wearing the official club kit.

New Playing Members

Any person wishing to join Cricket Club Wettingen as a player must complete and submit the online registration form. The executive committee of Cricket Club Wettingen will review the application and decide on the membership. Once the executive committee confirms the membership, the applicant must send their scanned copy of their residence permit and the signed declaration.

Players transferring from another Cricket Switzerland league team are also required to complete a player transfer form, which is available from the Cricket Switzerland website.

For members wishing to be eligible to represent Cricket Club Wettingen in any CS qualified competition the club will need to register the player with Cricket Switzerland.

Membership Annual Subscription

The annual membership subscription must be paid within 30 days of acceptance of the membership application. The annual membership subscription shall be,

1. Full Members – 100 CHF
2. Passive Members – 50 CHF
3. Junior Members (Under 18 years of age) – 70 CHF

Any player not paying their above subscription fee by the due date may be suspended from upcoming matches until such time as the subscription fee is paid in full (at the discretion of the committee).
